WISCONSIN REVOLTS

Three Sides to the Conflict

If Americans were not as careless as they are, there would be no trouble today. The U. S. is the most wasteful country on earth and now the consequences are coming.

There need be no defeatist attitude among the people who are peace mongers. Instead, there should be rejoicing because waste destroys itself. God still rules supreme and the war mongers have to fear HIM. We need not fear HIM.

Lindbergh is not going to be bothered by the Jews because if anything befell that young man it would be the beginning of American pogroms, believe it or not. As Lindbergh laid the sacred cow of "impossibility" of spanning the Atlantic in a heavier than air machine, so Lindbergh laid the other sacred cow, that you must not say anything about the Jews, no matter how rotten their conduct is, how arrogant their usurpation and how criminal their subversion of the Constitution. Jews must be permitted to make wars in Europe and draft us to fight the wars for them, but we must not say anything to show up the war makers and the plan behind it. Lindbergh laid this sacred cow as neatly as he crossed the ocean and united two continents. The white people everywhere on earth are behind Lindbergh and that is just the beginning.

The Jewish Side

Of course, it has been known since antiquity; the Jews have advertised it: They are the Chosen People of Jehovah who are to rule the world and the nations must bow before them and pay them tribute. If they cannot rule the world by sheer force, they are using cunning and consider themselves "smart". Result: They were locked up as criminals from the days of the Pharaos, again in Babylon, in the ghettos, pogrom followed pogrom and they were chased out of every country where they came to power. They also left each country a wreck, for only after they wrecked it that the people turned against them.

At present the Rothschild clan, as the chief conspirators with the other clans of European, British and American financiers have esconded themselves in political and economic power in the "civilized world". They were powerful in "civilized Germany" under the Kaiser. After Germany's ruination the people chased the Jews out as had happened many times before in history. And they flock to America. "God bless America", they are such suckers over there!

The Nazi Side

The National Socialists of Germany have reverted to a mixture of slave and "Herren" system. The people at large are the slaves of the state and the state are the HERREN or Nazis, which is short for national socialists. They propose to bring down paradise upon earth by sheer force. They also are the "Chosen People", only not of Jehovah, but of some nebulous antiquity, a mixture of Fireworkship, Iron and Blood. The serfs must place absolute faith in the Nazis who will lead them to the promised land as Joshua led the Jews. And the murder business proceeds as it did in the case of the Jews when they went out to conquer their promised land. No difference between the two.

The Jews are "Chosen" by their god. The Nazis are chosen, too. Now they are fighting it out. The Jews are marshalling the slaves in all other countries to fight for them. One nation after the other goes under in Europe before the Chosen Hitler who supplanted the Kaiser, as Joshua supplanted Moses.

Britain is Jew-ridden and pays tribute to the Golden Calf. For a price any Jew can buy himself a peerage and be one of he "Lords", Sirs and Barons of the realm.

The American Side

While Germany has gone socialistic which is the same as communistic, while Britain is Jew-ridden and special privileges are for sale to the highest bidder, Jewish style; the United States of America still holds to a vestige of individual virtue. But the worship of the lord god CASH, has brought the Jew in America to the zenith of his power. He does not know it yet that with Lindbergh's speech the Jewish star has started on its descent, but the truth is true.

Before Lindbergh's speech the serfs in America took it and imagined they had to like it. Now things have changed as with magic. Just as they changed when he laid the ghost of "impossible" to cross the ocean by air.

And where does the pendulum-swing center? In no other place than Wisconsin. There were a few men and women scattered over the nation, who, like myself, had started a sort of guerilla harrassment of the Jewish usurer but now the fear bubble has burst. I [illegible] the "unspeakable" word, he [illegible] And Wisconsin is populated [illegible] Germans.

Here it was where Socialism, as in Germany, has flourished. The German slave mind cannot think any farther than that all should be slaves of the state and have the state do their thinking. And Wisconsin is Lafollette's state where the revolution against the "Herren" took place two generations ago. When the German revolts he becomes a socialist. So did the Russian. So does the Briton.

But besides the German slave minds who at least have guts enough to revolt, America contains individuals who are a blending of various races. The Lafollettes are French, for example. Still the spirit of individualism, of true Americanism is strong and because the issue in America is Judaism vs. Americanism, where do the Americans find asylum but in Wisconsin where the Germans are strong. They furnish the proper atmosphere, the background, where the Americans come to live to get away from Jew York.

You will find at Lake Geneva in Wisconsin a group of Americans who are proclaiming a message as different from Nazism and Judaism, (for Nazism and Judaism is one and the same thing) as day is from night. No socialism, no communism, no usury and golden cash worship for these Americans.

America stands for individual rights, duties and initiative with responsibility. Only those who outgrow socialism, cash worship and treachery, can become Americans. At Lake Geneva there is a group of Americans who are working hard to show the rest of the world that there are three issues:

The Jewish, the Nazi and the American. The Nazis and the Jews are fighting and murdering each other.

The Americans are minding their own business and will bury the dead and restore life to the living.

War Mongering Stooge for Anaconda Copper

The Jewish financial interests behind Anaconda Copper, naturally, will do all in their power to keep the war going, even if they have to bleed every American sucker. Their war-[illegible]ngering Stooge, Jerry J. O'Connell, former [illegible]ontana congresman, followed peace mongering Sen. Burton K. Wheeler by addressing San Diegans last Sunday in the Ford Bowl, Balboa Park. How proud the kikes are that they can hire an Irishman to front for the British and the Soviets!

Why Spend Your Money on War Mongering ?

Lindbergh is called the most dangerous man in America on the cover page announcement of Liberty magazine. Several months ago when Liberty started smearing Lindbergh I asked our younger son Frederick whether he proposed to continue peddling that war mongering magazine. Fred has several magazine and paper routes. "How much money are you making a week from Liberty sales?" —"21 cents", said Freddy. — "And for 21 cents, are you going to sell America into war and smear Lindbergh?"

Freddy, being born in this country, considers things from the material aspect, asked: "Could I not sell the route to some other boy? I know a boy who wants to buy it. I have worked so hard to build up my route and don't want to give it away for nothing." — "Fred, that's your business. I am not making decisions for you. As far as I am concerned you can go on peddling LIBERTY, or sell the route or give it away. It's your responsibility. My duty was to call your attention to what you are a party to, so you won't be surprised when the consequences come home to you." And Fred sold his route. —Personally I have not been to a show for years and am spending every penny AGAINST the war. Bad enough that I have to pay taxes to help murder people, but not a penny voluntarily.

Labor Racket

From The Frying Pan Into The Fire

The Royal Cleaners & Dyers and the Lewis Bros. Cleaners & Dyers imagined they pulled a fast one on the members of the Cleaners & Dyers Association when they called in the CIO to organize their shops on a closed shop basis and force a raise in prices. But now they are in hotter than they had bargained for. The AFL does not like the idea of a CIO closed shop in the cleaning & dying industry, so the AFL teamsters have decided to take a hand in the matter—and will the fur fly now! It does not pay to dig a hole for others, you might get buried in it yourself.

Norman Thomas

More than any other public figure today, Dr. Norman Thomas represents the traditional American dissenter. He has capacity for clear and courageous thinking which has won for him the respect of all sections of American society excepting the extreme left. By virtue of his position in a minor party Mr. Thomas enjoys the privilege of discussing issues without regard for political expediency. He is always understanding yet challenging and stimulating. He presents arguments in debates and radio discussion which stir the American public mind by their honesty and straightforward approach to the problems which confront us. Many may not agree with him, but few feel less than respect for his courageous stand. Today as in 1917, he has taken his definite stand for peace and avoidance of foreign entanglements. He has consistently fought every move of the President's to take the country into this war. From the platform, on the air and before the Senate Committee he fought the lease-lend bill, the selective service act and the lifting of the embargo. When Norman Thomas speaks at the Russ Auditorium on October 21st, he should have a capacity audience.

"Democracy" in Panama

No sooner did President Arnulfo Arias forbid the arming of U. S. vessels registered under the Panamanian flag, to evade the Neutrality Law, than he had to flee to Cuba for his life. Lease lend money will do wonders in "democracy". The new Panamanian President Adolfo de la Guardia, of course favors going to war.

This is the second time that Roosevelt dictated "democratic" government in the Latin republics. He dictated the "election" of Camacho in Mexico, whom he owns hide and hair.

After what happened in Chicago when Roosevelt nominated himself for the third term and nominated Wallace for his successor and got helped along by the voice from the sewers of Chicago to stampede the convention, the technique is evident. The election itself was fraudulent. An honest count would have shown FDR defeated by over 500,000 votes. But the corruption in the large cities produced a "majority" for Roosevelt.

"Terror" Rules the Blind Shop, Charge

A good many complaints have come to our office concerning the conduct of the Blind Shop at 410 Market street by its San Diego manager, Emmet Copeland. I have advised the complainants to take their charges to the County Grand Jury. They said that they had consulted with the D. A. and were upheld in their contention that Copeland was using his office to terrorize the blind charges entrusted to him, by depriving them of piece work when they did not knuckle down to his raging moods. The matter is serious enough to warrant airing and we are going to get at it. The blind seem to be deprived of means of earning a living at the pleasure and displeasure of Copeland. We shall report on our findings.

Declared a legal paper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, by Superior Court order, January 15, 1932.

F. D. R. and Stalin, Co-Religionists

The cynical viewpoint as respects Russia's profession of reform in its practices with respect to religion is expressed in the old Rabelaisian adage:

"The devil was sick— the devil a monk would be;
The devil was well—the devil a monk was he."

If Josef Stalin is giving ground to his foreign critics, the skeptics assert, it is only because he sees this as a way of securing the foreign help that he so badly needs, and his reformation will last just so long as his predicament persists, and no longer.—Jay G. Hayden.

Let Us Hear Denials

In his Des Moines speech, Colonel Lindbergh charged that there were three groups leading a reluctant America into a foreign war. These, he said, were the British, the Jews and the Roosevelt Administration.

The British made no denial of the charge. As everyone knows, their propaganda is not only well organized from London but is also assisted by Washington and various war groups under divers frenetic titles.

The Roosevelt Administration made no denial of the charge, only commenting, in the best Rooseveltian (or Ickesian?) manner, that the address by the pro-American Colonel Lindbergh paralleled others "from Berlin".

Strangely enough, the Jews made no denial. Here was an opportunity for Jewish political leaders to rise and, asserting their non-racial and non-religious political individuality, deny that they were, as a majority, guilty of Colonel Lindbergh's indictment. There was no relevant answer from Morgenthau, from Benjamin Cohen, from Bernard Baruch, from Rabbi Wise. Nor did any other prominent member of American Jewry declare himself for peace. Instead, there was only invective and the cry of "Jew Baiter".

Here was an opportunity, a magnificent opportunity, for Jewry to discredit charges made publicly by one sincere American and often asserted privately by prominent Americans— leaders who were found, metaphorically, hiding under their beds the morning after the Des Moines speech. This was a chance to establish American unity by asserting the non-existence of a racial minority bloc for war. No such statements have been made.

It is regrettable that Colonel Lindbergh's accusation has not been challenged. It is far more regrettable that the American press has found it easier to create a caste of Untouchables in the Jews than to defend them.

For there are no sacrosanct minorities in the United States, either religious, racial or political. In pretending that any attack on Jewish politics is an assault on racial or religious Semitism, the newspapers are developing a dangerous situation most unhealthy for the future of American Jewry.

Either Colonel Lindbergh is wrong or he is right. If he is right, and the minority blocs are successful in pushing the United States into an unpopular, costly and unnecessary war, the popular post-war reaction will be inevitable and vindictive. If he is wrong, now is the time for at least one prominent Jew to come out openly against our involvement in Europe's war.—Herald, Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Searching for a Pretext

The widespread American conviction that the Roosevelt Administration sought and hoped for an incident like the Greer episode as a pretext to start shooting comes not from any "subversive" organization or "foreign agent". It comes straight from the White House feedbox.

Until they landed themselves soft berths in the Army and Navy, Alsop and Kintner were regarded as the Washington columnists closest to the President on foreign policy. One is a relative of the Roosevelt family. Both wrote a semi-official "White Paper" defending Roosevelt interventionism. Their column was regarded as an accurate reflection of White House views on foreign policy.

In their widely syndicated column, as long ago as June 4, Alsop and Kintner reported that the President had not "acted" up to then because "he hopes to drive the Germans to shoot first . . . . The men around the President are now united in urging him to order action out of hand, without waiting for a pretext."

Alluding to the new patrol system on the North Atlantic, Alsop and Kintner said that "the President and the men around him privately hope the patrol will produce an incident."

In the face of this comment, and many more like them from other friends of the Administration, it seems preposterous for Roosevelt apologists to insist at this late date that the President has done his best to keep out of a shooting war.—The Progressive.

ARMED MERCHANT SHIPS

If anybody doubts that arming of United States merchant ships would lead directly to open warfare between this nation and Germany, let him or her study briefly the history of the first World war and how we became involved. And if anybody doubts that there is an organized administration effort to involve the United States in Europe's current war, let him or her listen briefly to the rising clamor for American action to "get it over and done with", and take note of its sources.

First it was the cash and carry plan, then aid to Britain, now it is shoot first; and tomorrow it will be armed American merchant ships. How long will it be then to another A.E.F.? The ground already is being prepared. And the disheartening thing is that nobody seems able to do anything to stop it. Why?

The answer to that is the answer to why our democracy finds itself jopardized by events in other parts of the world. It is because our people have been and still are too much concerned about individual social gains and group advantages to give proper attention to the welfare of the nation. Therein lies the weakness threatening to betray us. We give lip service to the principles of democracy but we are too busy with our personal affairs to practice it and safeguard our democratic institutions. Instead, we let the politicians do it and then complain about the ravages of incompetence and the misuse of authority.

Then there are the cynical devices to prostitute our laws, such as the registration of American merchant ships under the flag of the republic of Panama. If ever the world witnessed a despicable subterfuge unworthy of a great nation, that was an outstanding example. And now little Panama has protested, declaring that merchant ships bearing its flag must not be armed, under penalty of forfeiture of Panama registry. Panama refuses to be Uncle Sam's goat, or catspaw, according to the point of view. It is another step toward war that we shall have to take alone, if we take it. —Tribune-Sun.

"GOD BLESS AMERICA!"

Willkie and Lehman [redacted]

By E. N. Martin
4121 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles

Slick Wendell Willkie, turncoat Democrat, apostate Republican and apologist for Communism, who captured the Republican presidential nomination in 1940, and who has since referred to his campaign blasts as "bits of campaign oratory", has been one of President Roosevelt's chief aides in the creation of unprecedented national disunity. Mr. Willkie also has denounced the Government's prosecution of Earl Browder and Fritz Kuhn and has declared that "Communism has never been a military menace." He is supporting Mayor La Guardia, "American-Labor" candidate for reelection as Mayor of New York City; and he has become a director in a British-dominated insurance company, the New York Shipbuilding Company, which has government contracts approximating a half billion dollars, and has been nominated for a directorship in Lehman Brothers Corporation, an enormously rich investment concern.

Current rumors indicate that Mr. Willkie, with the aid of Will Hays, Joe Schenck, Louis B. Mayer, Harry Warner, Barney Balaban, Adolph Zukor, Darryl Zanuck, Sam Goldwyn, Nate Blumberg, Moe Siegel and other top-notch film producers by whom he is now employed, will again seek the Republican nomination for the Presidency.

It might interest political acrobats and hurdle-jumping candidates for elective office to know that long ago William Penn wrote: "Equivocation is halfway to lying, as lying the whole way to hell."

Later, Abraham Lincoln said: "There is an important sense in which the government is distinct from the Administration. One is perpetual; the other temporary and changeable. A man may be loyal to his government and yet oppose the peculiar principles and methods of the Administration."

Recently, Representative Dewey Short of Missouri, declared: "Mr. Roosevelt has a flair for the spectacular, but our greatest need in Washington today is for more truth and less trickery, more sanity and less surreptition and more statesmanship and less showmanship.

"Armies and debts and taxes are the best known instruments for bringing the many under the domination of the few"; and our participation in the European cataclysm would not only perpetuate the reign of the Roosevelt-Hillman-Frankfurter-Rosenman-Morgenthau-Cohen-Hopkins-Perkins-Ickes-Bullit hierachy, but it would soak foreign fields with the blood of our young men, impoverish and demoralize the nation, destroy our liberties and bring sorrow and mourning to our people. And all lovers of truth and justice and peace should write to their Representative in Congress and U. S. Senators and urge them to oppose amendments to the Neutrality Act and aid in keeping this nation out of war. Do it now!

Supreme Judge Calls Grand-Daddy of New Deal

BRANDEIS, PRES. AMERICAN ZIONISTS, LEAVES $3,200,000 ESTATE

'First New Dealer' Famed for Dissents

WASHINGTON,— Louis Dembitz Brandeis, whose famous 'liberal' dissents became guiding doctrine of the supreme court after he had served on it for more than two decades, died at his home here. He would have been 85 on Nov. 13.

Brandeis was stricken with a heart attack Wednesday, Oct. 1.

The attack was the first serious illness which Brandeis had suffered since his retirement from the high court Feb. 13, 1939, although he always appeared frail.

First Jew on Bench

The first Jew to sit on the supreme court bench, Brandeis was the closest friend of the late Oliver Wendell Holmes, grand old man of American law, with whom he served and made history on the tribunal for many years.

Mrs. Brandeis, two daughters—Mrs. Jacob Gilbert and Mrs. Paul Raushenbush—and a sister were at the bedside. Together with a number of grandchildren, they are his only immediate survivors.

During his long, colorful career—first as a crusading lawyer and in later years as a member of the supreme court—he won many names such as "the people's lawyer", "the great dissenter", "the friend of the 'little' man" and "the trust-buster".

But the phrase which he probably cherished best of all was one that for years was famous in the supreme court chamber:

"Justice Holmes and Brandeis dissent."

Not until some 14 years after Brandeis became a justice and after the retirement and death of Holmes, did the tide of juridical opinion change. Then Brandeis, often referred to as the "first new dealer", found himself with the majority of the court on social legislation.

Forecast New Deal

In 1932, during the Hoover administration, he wrote a dissenting opinion which many, in retrospect, said was a forecast of the administration to come:

"There must be a power in the states and the nation to remold, through experimentation, our economic practices and institutions to meet changing social and economic needs."

Protector of Leon Trotsky

Brandeis intervened with President Wilson when the British stopped the New York Eastside Jew Bronstein (Trotsky) from reaching Russia with a million dollars campaign fund contributed by the Schiffs and other Jewish bankers, to take charge of the Soviet revolution.

Brandeis' intercession with the British succeeded to place Bronstein in the place of power where he became known as Leon Trotsky and instituted the Christian massacres, murdering the Romanoffs and every priest, official and mujik who dared confess his religion as well as opposition to Communism.

Brandeis as the grand-daddy of of the New Deal was a secret advisor of FDR and through Felix Frankfurter inculcated the subversion of the U. S. Constitution and its replacement with "experiments" that have ruined the U. S. A. and placed it in bondage to International Jewry to the tune of over 50 billions, already, with prospects of doubling the ante.

May God have mercy on his soul!

Born in Kentucky

He was born, Nov. 13, 1856, in Louisville, Ky., just eight years after his parents left Bohemia during a revolution. He studied in the Louisville public schools and attended the university there. In 1872 he was taken to Germany where he studied at the Annen Real Schule, Dresden.

During the European interlude his family lost its fortune and young Brandeis returned to the United States to work his way through Harvard law school with high honors.

Brandeis Leaves $3,200,000 Estate

WASHINGTON,—Former Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis left an estate of nearly $3,200,000, it was disclosed when his will was filed for probate. The bulk of it was in cash and bonds.

Priority of Constitution

From the mad maze of headlines and from the discordant noise of many voices clamoring for a shooting war, there comes to us a few, calm, thoughtful, and truly patriotic, speeches. One of these was made by Father Gillis last week. He called attention to the number of people who have fallen in line and have been afraid to maintain their convictions that the best course for the nation is the course of peace. He wrote in advance the obituary of democracy in America if 15% of the people are able to push the other 85% into war. He deplored the fatalistic attitude of so many who have already thrown up the sponge saying "what's the use?" This attitude is apostasy from the idea of democracy and is a return to the conditions that existed in the colonies before 1776. He warned against the Senate and the Congress of the United States surrendering their powers and said that it was similar to what happened in Germany before a subservient Reichstag yielded its powers to the wolf of the Black Forest.

Father Gillis also insisted on the priority of moral principles over slogans of expediency. He insisted on the proper sequences of loyalties, first, to God, second, to conscience, third, to religion, and fourth to moral principles. "In the civil order," he said, "I must be loyal to my country, to my country's Constitution, its traditions, its history, its character. If the president acts in accordance with the Constitution, and with the American custom, tradition, spirit, character, I shall be loyal to him. If the president acts in opposition to the constitution, the law of the land, the tradition and the ethos of Democracy, I cannot in conscience follow him. Not that I love the President less but I love my country more. I am not less loyal to the man but more loyal to the nation."

Another speaker, Samuel B. Pettengill, discussed merely the financial aspect of the country. He said in effect that people who look upon their government as a perpetual Christmas tree can not long remain free. He quoted the story of an old Frenchman who had fought in 1870 and in 1914 and whose sons fought in 1939. 'We saw no further than the parish pump and were well satisfied when our representatives in Parliament brought home the gravy. We always spoke of our dues, and not of our duties; of our rights and not of our responsibilities. We came to regard the State as a cow to be milked, and not a wachdog to be fed."

For 11 years we have been living, as a nation, "on the cuff". This course must be stopped if we are to avoid the chaotic experiences of many countries of Europe that have gone through the confusion of repudiation and inflation. These experiences wiped out the thrifty middle classes. When the middle classes are gone Democracy has no friends. The speaker asked the American people to demand of their Congress that the expense of living, apart from necessary defense expenditures, be kept within a balanced budget. He ended his speech by saying, "If the wasters and grafters tell you that you are destroying confidence, shout 'nuts' to them, and shout it loud. If you want to have a hand in this great struggle to preserve freedom against foes without and within, this is it."—Southern Cross.

Courts Uphold "Christians Only" Advertisements

NEW YORK,— Jewish License Commissioner Paul Moses sought to revoke the license of the National Employment Exchange of this city for refusal to reveal the names of Christian firms that had advertised for clerical help, specifying "Christian". The courts ruled against the commissioner. In every large paper in this city you may read daily want ads and personals, specifying "Hebrew", but Commissioner Moses made no effort to cancel the licenses of those employment agencies on the grounds that it incites to religious and racial discrimination.

Wheeler Lauds Lindy's Motives

LONG BEACH,— U. S. Sen. Burton K. Wheeler in an isolationist address said:

"While I do not always agree with Charles Lindbergh's ideas, I have always respected him and I know that he is actuated by the highest patriotic motives."

He suggested that those who want to go to war can cross the border into Canada "and as far as I'm concerned, they can take Willkie, Knox and Stimson with them."

WARNING! Don't Hijack Employes!

With solicitation in large industrial establishments scheduled to begin Tuesday, October 14, and residential workers ready to start their appeal Oct. 21, Chester L. Dorman, 1941 Comunity Chest Campaign chairman, asserted that "the spirit in this year's campaign organization is unquestionably the hightest in many years", in expressing confidence that the goal of $255,217. will be met and passed.

There is a genuine sincerity and eagerness in this year's campaign organization that cannot help but bring the finest possible results," he stated.

(Press release from 'Your Community Chest', 533 Union Bldg.)

We are repeating AGAIN and AGAIN our yearly protests against the highhanded manner in which practically every large department store and corporation as well as city and county officials are HIJACKING their employees into contributing to the Community Chest. Hitler is doing exactly the same thing this winter and uses identical methods. Shame on the school, the police, the CONSAIR and all the other administrations, including the navy for highpressuring poor people to sign on the doted line and assign funds they cannot spare TO PUT A FEATHER IN THE CAP of the smooth bully, who, Hitler fashion, extracts the pledges.

There is virtue in wholehearted giving, but extortions are a curse!

Pope Accepts "Bribe", But Won't Fraternize With Joe Stalin

POPE THANKS TAYLOR FOR GIFT OF VILLA

VATICAN CITY,—Publishing an announcement of the farewell audience which His Holiness, Pope Pius XII accorded to Myron C. Taylor, President Roosevelt's personal representative to the Vatican, and Mrs. Taylor on Sunday, Osservatore Romano says that, at the end of the audience, "The Sovereign Pontiff confirmed again his grateful pleasure in the munificent gesture made by these illustrious personages last winter in giving the Holy Father this property, the Villa Schifanoia near Florence."

Inspite of accepting Taylor's "gift" the Pope refused to abandon the Vatican's stand against the Communists.

Department Guest: "You've got a pretty place here, Frank; but it looks a bit bare yet."

Host: "Oh, it's because the trees are rather young. I hope they'll have grown to a good size before you come again."

Earl Warren, New Deal Stooge

WASHINGTON,— Rep. Simpson (R-Pa), asserted that cancellation of a broadcast arranged for Atty. Gen. George F. Barrett of Illinois before the national association of attorneys general at Indianopolis on Sept. 30 appeared to merit inquiry by the committee on interstate commerce.

Simpson said in a statement that the broadcast was cancelled after conferences between Francis J. Biddle, attorney general of the United States, and Earl Warren of California, president of the association.

Radio Time Arranged

The radio time, Simpson stated, had been arranged about two weeks in advance, the National Broadcasting Co. had donated the period as a part of its public service program, and Barrett had submitted his speech to the radio company. It attacked Communism and Fascism and appealed for restoration and revitalization of American constitutional procedure in Washington.

"Upon his arrival in Indianapolis, however, Mr. Barrett was informed the convention program could not be arranged to accommodate the broadcasting period fixed by NBC. Mr. Warren urged that the broadcast be cancelled.

Warrants Inquiry

"I think," said Simpson, "It proper for our committee to inquire whether Atty. Gen. Biddle influenced this cancellation of the broadcast.

"This is not an isolated case of new deal radio censorship. There have been many other instances recently which suggested growing radio censorship by the administration—a most unwholesome and thoroughly un-American development."

THE UGLY TRUTH

"The ugly truth is that we went into the first World War to save the house of Morgan from a four hundred million dollar overdraft by Great Britain. Out of the first five hundred million dollars worth of Liberty bonds we bought, four hundred millon went to Morgan. I challenge Mr. Morgan to deny that statement. Now history is repeating itself. If we are taken into war, it will not be to spread the four freedoms to all the world, but to save this international banking clique from annihilation."— Former Representative William Lemke, North Dakota, in address at Bloomington, Illinois, June 29, 1941.

CITY'S WATER RIGHTS DEPEND ON AVAILABILITY

Revelation that San Diego's "rights" to 112,000 acre feet a day of Colorado river water may depend on whether the water is available when and if the city wants it, was made known at a council conference.

Despite its contract with the federal government, the city cannot get "blood out of a turnip", Walter Cooper, city manager, pointed out.

Arizona Big User

Councilman Fred Simpson said so much water was being diverted to Arizona, with assent of members of the Seven-State conference, that there was danger the government might not be able to live up to its agreement with San Diego.

Arizona is not a member of the conference, but holds a strong position in allocation of the water from Lake Mead, the Colorado river and other sources of Colorado river water, because much of the development lies within the state, Simpson asserted.

democracy

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

NEW YORK.— What is to be done with the religious and racial issues that are allowed—only by convention and around the edges, by law—to be discussed and sotto voce, under cover?

Ingersoll

Suppose Jews were smart enough— and we all acknowledge their smartness—to (a) out-do Americans in business, (b) capture their politics, although not comprising over 10% of voters; and finally (c) drag us into a feudal war against their ancient enemy, which would deliver our democracy to an economic system invented by a mid-European Jewish agitator?

Should 100 million Americans refrain from dealing factually with this situation because it is taboo or even illegal?

Suppose Jews, as part of their warfare on a Rugged Individualistic American business system, (a) succeed in attaching to it the stigma of exploiting labor and the people, customer-consumers; (b) in organizing unions to help win their war, (c) in having all this culminate in delivering democracy, capitalism, and our 'American way of life' into a new order, of which Communistic labor-ism is the backbone—well if all this were immediately threatened, you may say pending, as a result of Jewish smartness—should the 100 million Americans let Jewish war-mongers 'call the time' because it was deemed impolite, or something, to tell the truth about race or religion?

And again supposing that the Roman Catholic church—although violently opposing Communism by name—were (just as our greatest democracy does) in every practical way giving aid and comfort to it. Would it be necessary for this same 100 million non-Catholics in America, because of certain taboos and inhibitions, to refrain from showing the exact position of Rome on this crucial subject? And especially would it be incumbent on the great but non-militant Protesatnt reform churches to so abstain?

What is freedom of religion, thought and expression, if it must all crystallize into such conventional cowardice as to dark-age slavery of these primary elements of modern light?

Do You Like Our Cartoons ?

To produce a good cartoon it takes inspiration. Then I hunt up the artist and convey the idea to him. He makes a drawing in pencil, we discuss it some more and suggest changes. After that he inks it and delivers it.

Next we give it to the engraver who makes a cut of it and we print the cartoon.

But that is just the beginning. Next thing you know the artist and the engraver both of them, mind you, are not satisfied with having been instrumental in producing a marvelous cartoon, no sir, they sit down both of them, and each one of them, and before you know it they typed out a bill and mailed it to me.

Now my headaches commence. I have to hustle and scheme and work to get in the extra money to pay for the cartoon that was so pointedly telling the story and putting it across.

Now you are elected. You are elected to help pay for the cartoon. I have done my share, how about doing your bit to make it possible to present more and better cartoons. Just send your contributions: THE BROOM, East San Diego, Calif. And share in the blessings of a better world.

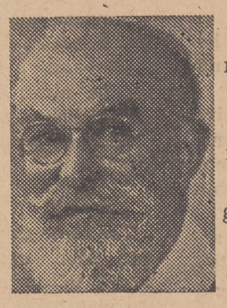
HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

FEVER HINTS

When there is a fever, take only citrus fruit juices, preferably lemon or grapefruit juice, diluted with distilled (or boiled) water. Loading the stomac with solid food while there is fever, is dangerous. Many are killed by it.



Dr. Geo. Starr White

Milk is a solid food, as it becomes a solid when it reaches the stomac. The "milk and egg diet" for those with fevers, is often fatal.

Fever prevents proper digestion. If solid food be given, the sick body has just so much more to do.

Avoid all coal-tar products as U would avoid the bite of a serpent. They depress the heart and should not be experimented with.

Avoid nicotin in all forms—it depresses the heart.

Keep the bowels active.

Get all the fresh air possible, but keep patient out of drafts.

With pneumonia, no matter how "lite", remain in bed a week or more after all fever has subsided. Do not attempt even to rise up in bed until three or four days after fever has subsided.

"Flu" and tuberculosis seek those with poor digestion. Avoid all refined sugar and refined flour, and everything made from them. Avoid all corn-and-wheat mixtures, as they weaken digestion. Avoid everything cooked in aluminum. All aluminum or alum products injure the digestive tract and depress the heart.

Hot water and lemon juice, if the patient is in bed and well covered, often help bring on the sweat that "breaks the fever".

URIC ACID

As a Factor in the Causation of Disease
By KATHERINE LARSON

The most important discovery made by Dr. A. Haig regarding uric acid in the blood is the fact, that uric acid forms colloid particles, which block and obstruct the tiny capillaries or blood vessels between the arteries and veins. Uric acid renders the blood semisolid gluey and gelatinous, thus mechanically interferring with the blood circulation in the small blood vessels. Dr. A. Haig calls it collaemia of the blood. The immediate result of collaemia in capillaries is the rise of blood pressure, because the heart drives the blood into the arteries and then to the capillaries where uric acid in the form of colloid hinders the free flow of the blood. The collaemic troubles may be divided into four groups:

High blood pressure in the arteries, the difficulties which the heart experiences in driving the blood through the capillaries, the obstruction of the capillaries themselves, and lastly that defective combustion of the fires of life which results from the defective circulation in the capillaries all over the body.

There are millions of people suffering from high blood pressure without knowing the cause of it. If you ask your doctor what causes high blood pressure, he may tell you that it is caused by over weight, worry or some other unknown factor. Only Dr. A. Haig's explanation is correct and can be proven by any one who is willing to eliminate uric acid from his system.

Vegetarians whose diet is practically uric acid free, do not suffer from high blood pressure.

When capillaries are blocked by excess uric acid in the blood, it can plainly be seen in the condition of the skin, which is pale, cold and lifeles. If you press your finger on the skin so that a white patch is produced, in normal conditions the blood will return into it in two or three seconds, but in collaemic or uric acid conditions, the blood might not return into such a patch for as long as 20 or 30 seconds. This slow capillary reflex as Dr. Haig calls it, is a direct result of excess uric acid in the blood and can be corrected only by alkalizing the blood and keeping uric acid out of our diet.

"PART OF IRON AND PART OF CLAY"

By Hubert H. Heath

HOT SPRINGS, N. M.,—A little more than one hundred and fifty years ago there was laid at Frankfort-on-Main the foundations of an invisible empire that was, in time, to rule the world. That is what it was calculated and intended to do.

The man who laid the foundation said: "Let me control the money and credit of a nation and I care nothing of who writes its laws." The foundations were laid in stolen gold, cemented in blood—the blood—the first of which was spilled by our revolutionary forebears.

Every dictatorship functioning in the earth today was set up by that invisible empire—including our own. Three emblems of that empire are the Red Star of Atheism, the Red Shield of the Rothschilds and the Red Flag of Communism.

That invisible empire today orders laws written, sent to Congress and passed without reading—and Congress does just that. Should a member refuse to vote for such a law he is denounced as a demagogue and all the little, party blind fools in the land join in the denunciation.

Congress alone has the power to remedy this situation. Congress is under oath to enforce the mandates of the Constitution, but Congress lacks the intestinal fortitude and the high sense of honor to do its plain duty.

In my opinion Congress contains the greatest aggregation of unhung scoundrels ever gathered under one roof, an aggregation of scallawag lawyers the like of which was never before brought together on earth, and some of the finest sample of statesmanship the world has seen.

The majority is selling out American liberty, the minority striving vainly to waken the nation to that fact. Thousands of Reds have been planted in positions of power and Congress does nothing about it.

The kept press denounce the few patriots who hold sacred their obligations and strive to serve the people and the kept press denounce them for doing so.

All the dictators of earth were set up by and are serving the House of the Red Shield today, working out its secret, sinister purposes. That purpose is to prepare the ground and set up a visible world empire with ten dictators and a "Superman" over them.

This world government is to have a world monetary system based on gold, and the gold of the earth has been gathered for the purpose and most of it lies buried at Fort Knox.

The "Heaping of Treasures for the Last Days" of the age has been completed. The Ten Toed Kingdom of Daniel is not far in the future. The "Toes" or "Kingdoms" are to be "part of iron and part of clay". America will furnish the toes of clay, the old world dictatorships the toes of iron.

The man who is imposed upon the earth in the guise of super-man will be chosen by the "Three Hundred" who rule the House of the Red Shield. God only made one super-man and he was rejected of men and His life was taken from the earth.

He said: "Another shall come in My name and him will ye receive." Watch and see. The man who is in control of this gold will be in a commanding position.

This super-man must be Jewish, as the Jews will accept him as their Messiah. He must be acceptable to the great Catholic church with its 325 million adherents and when these agree Protestantism will largely (yes, has largely) crumble.

This super-man must be a superb showman as he is to be able to "Deceive, if it were possible, the very elect of God". "He will work miracles" of finance with the vast wealth in his hands, and he "Will by peace destroy many".

By bringing a temporary peace out of the present world orgy of blood, he will be able to destroy the many who otherwise would refuse to bow to him. For about three years this super-man will play the part (outwardly) of the Great Humanitarian, then the fact of clay will show and there "will be a time of trouble such as never was since men have been on earth."

Only the coming of the Just One will end his reign of wickedness and bring peace on earth. Then will be that which was spoken of the Apostle James: "Go to now ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth eaten.

"Your gold and your silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as if it were fire. Ye have heaped treasures for the last days."

The Invisible Empire is now preparing its own punishment which is to be delivered as soon as their iniquity has come to the full. The super-man that they are to set up will be revealed by his treaty with the Jews to return them to the Holy Land.

The three spirits of devils that are foretold for the end of the age would appear to be the spirits animating the preparations of men everywhere for war, as this is their appointed work.

The Four Horsemen who are to "Take peace from the earth" are visible for those whose spiritual eyes are open. The last to come up is to rule a "fourth part of the earth." Could that be the Americas? Watch and see.

War is the rise and rule of brute force over Law, Reason, Justice and Equity. War must demolish all governments and destroy people wholesale before they will accept this super-man with his plausible promises of peace and prosperity and freedom for all.

Earth is entering her Garden of Gethsemane and "wars are determined even unto the end". Having rejected the Christ who came to seek and to save, earth must now meet its own Gethsemane and it "Is even at the door".

Behold: It is written "I will overturn, overturn, until He come whose right it is to reign." Even so, Come Lord Jesus. No real peace can be expected until He comes to establish a rule of law.
